

David AUTISSIER

www.davidautissier.com

autissier@u-pec.fr

After many experiences as a financial auditor and an IT project manager, David Autissier became Professor at the IAE Paris Est - University of Paris Est Créteil (UPEC) in 1998. He received a PhD in Management from Panthéon-Sorbonne University in 1996.

Expert in Change Management, he worked for many major French and international companies helping them to build their change strategy. Moreover he handles change projects for governmental administrations.

David Autissier is teaching cost control and change management at University and in several renowned business schools such as IAE Gustave Eiffel Université Paris Est, Université Paris Dauphine, ESSEC, ESCP, and ENA.

His academic work concentrates on fostering the capabilities that influence a company's ability to change. His publications have appeared in various specialized journals. He is the author or co-author of many books : Neo-Change (EMS 2024), Incertitude ordinaire (EMS 2024), Méthode de conduite du changement (2023 Dunod), La boîte à outils de l'innovation managériale (2022 Dunod), Travail et Organisation Hybride (Eska 2021), La coopération pour transformer (EMS, 2020), Entreprise à mission et raison d'être (Dunod, 2019), Innovation Managériale (Eyrolles 2018), Passez en mode Workshop Agile (Pearson 2018), La transformation Digitale (Eyrolles 2017), le Changement agile (Dunod 2015)

David Autissier is Professor at the IAE Paris Est - University of Paris Est Créteil (UPEC). He is teaching Management and Change Management. He is the author of 75 books and articles. He is the executive Director of ESSEC Chair of change management.